Unit owners in these Condominiums may exchange parking spaces with other Units within that Condominium, as they may agree amongst themselves, subject to prior written approval of the Board of Directors, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. No transfers may occur that result in any unit not having one assigned parking space. 9. MAINTENANCE, ALTERATION AND IMPROVEMENTS. Responsibility for the maintenance of the condominium property, and restrictions upon alteration and improvement thereof, shall be as follows:

9.1. Association Maintenance. The maintenance, repair and replacement of all Common Elements (except those Limited Common Elements for which this Declaration delegates responsibility to the Unit Owner) and Association Property shall be performed by the Association, and the cost is a common expense, except as may otherwise be specifically noted with respect to Limited Common Elements. Same shall include, but not be limited to, exterior painting, roofing, balcony railings, and maintaining portions of the condominium property exposed to the elements, unless otherwise provided in this section. The Association shall maintain the front entry door, including the locks, hardware, and frame originally installed by the Developer, or replacements thereof of like kind and quality. The Association shall maintain the window installations originally installed by the Developer, or replacements thereof of like kind and quality. Same includes the window frame and encasement, the plate glass, and the exterior caulking thereof. The Unit Owners shall be responsible for interior window locking and opening mechanisms, interior caulking (if necessary or desired) the window sill (unless part of the window frame) and glass breakage due to any interior cause. The Association shall, through the Board of Directors, have the authority to determine, when windows and front doors need to be replaced, the style of windows and doors, and same shall not require a vote of the Unit Owners, it being understood that window and door styles change periodically, as do applicable codes. For Phases Two, Three and Four, the Association shall maintain the sliding glass doors and the structural components thereof, including trim and caulking. For Phases Two, Three and Four, if a balcony has been enclosed or a window wall has been installed on the balcony, or a balcony is enclosed or a widow wall is installed on a balcony at any time (if permitted as provided elsewhere in the Condominium Documents), and if any such balcony enclosure/window wall meets with the specifications (to be developed by, or at the direction of, the Board) for such improvements, the Association shall be responsible for the maintenance of such balcony enclosure/window wall, and in such cases the Association shall no longer be responsible for the sliding glass doors and structural components thereof. For Phase One, the Association shall not be responsible for the maintenance, repair, or replacement of the sliding glass door. The Association shall, through the Board of Directors, have the authority to determine when sliding glass doors (for Phases II, III and IV) and window walls (for Phase I) need to be replaced, and the style of such, and same shall not require a vote of the Unit Owners, it being understood that styles change periodically, as do applicable codes. The Association's maintenance responsibility includes, without limitation: the electrical meter, electrical installations from the electrical meter to the breaker box, and all electrical conduit located outside the unit; the air conditioning Freon lines; dryer vents; plumbing fixtures and installations located outside the unit for the furnishing of utilities to more than one unit or the common elements. The Association should be responsible for the maintenance and repair of the drywall constituting the common elements of the Condominium, including the interior surface of the exterior boundary walls. Decorations of such surfaces, (including but not limited to paint, wallpapering, paneling, etc.) are the responsibility of the unit owner. The Association's responsibility does not include interior electrical fixtures, switches or receptacles, plumbing fixtures, or other electrical, plumbing or mechanical installations located within the unit and serving only that unit. If, in connection with the discharge of its maintenance responsibilities, the Association must remove, disassemble, or destroy portions of the Condominium Property which the unit owner is required to maintain, repair, and replace, the Association shall be responsible for installation or replacement of that item, to its unfurnished state (i.e. excluding floor coverings, wall coverings, ceiling coverings, paint, wallpaper, paneling, etc.), provided that such items are part of the Condominium Property as originally installed by the Developer, or replacements thereof of like kind and quality. Unless otherwise in title, shall be the responsibility of the unit owner.

9.1.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary above, prior to the effective date of this amendment certain Owners have been allowed to replace, on their own and at their own expense, windows and/or sliding glass doors that are otherwise the maintenance, repair and replacement responsibility of the Association. In the event the Association undertakes a project to replace the windows and/or sliding glass doors that it has the maintenance, repair and replacement responsibility for with windows and/or sliding glass doors that are compliant with the current building code, it is the intent of this section to provide a credit to those Owners who have already replaced windows and/or sliding glass doors that are compliant with the current building code. Credit will only be given for windows and/or sliding glass doors that would otherwise be included in the Association's replacement project, but which do not need to be replaced because an Owner has already done so. Furthermore, credit will only be given to Owners who replaced such windows and/or sliding glass doors on or after August 2004, and which meet the current building code requirements at the time the window and/or sliding glass door replacement project is undertaken by the Association. Additionally, when any special assessment is levied for the Association's window and/or sliding glass door replacement project in the same Condominium where an Owner has already replaced a window and/or sliding glass door, any applicable credit will be reduced by an applicable percentage based upon the number of units in such Condominium, after an applicable window and/or sliding glass door was replaced by an Owner unit the same time an assessment is levied. The Association will base the amount of the credit on its costs for its replacement project, and not on any individual Owner's amount of the credit on its costs for its replacement project, and not on any individual Owner's cost, and in no event shall a credit for any Owner be greater than the actual amount expended by that Owner. Owners claiming entitlement to said credit will be required to provide any information and documentation as may be required by the Board to establish entitlement to the credit.

9.2. Unit Owners Maintenance. Each unit owner is responsible, at his own expense, for all maintenance, repairs, and replacements of his own unit and limited common elements serving only his unit, except as provided elsewhere herein, whether ordinary or extraordinary including, without limitation: the ceiling drywall, including the finishes thereof; non-load bearing interior partitions, the finishes thereof, the structural framing related thereto (assuming non-load bearing), and all electrical or plumbing facilities located therein, which service only the individual unit (unless specifically made the maintenance responsibility of the Association in Article 9.1 above); maintenance, repair and replacement of the baseboards; all doors, including storm doors, and the framing and structural components thereof (including trim, caulking, locks and hardware) within or servicing the unit (unless specifically made the maintenance responsibility of the Association in Article 9.1 above); all screening, including screening on the balconies; the front doorbell; the breaker box plus all electrical facilities from the breaker box inward, which service only that Unit; mechanical and plumbing fixtures and outlets (including connections) within a unit or serving only that unit including sinks, toilets, tubs, showers, shower pans, water valves and all related fixtures and installations; appliances; cable and telephone lines; all portions of the heating and air conditioning equipment and utility installations and connections serving an individual unit (no matter where located), including, but not limited to, compressors and air conditioning vents, but excepting Freon lines; carpeting and other floor covering, (including balcony areas); all other facilities or fixtures located or contained entirely within a own unit or limited common element area which serve only one unit. All said areas, if located outside of the boundaries of the unit, are declared limited common elements. Parking facilities shall be maintained by the Association. Any insurance proceeds paid to the Association with respect to any loss or damage within the unit or limited common elements which is covered by the Association's casualty insurance, and which loss would otherwise be borne by the unit owner, shall be paid to the unit owner, after the work has been completed and invoices have been verifying the costs of repair.

9.3. Additional Unit Owner Obligations. In connection with his maintenance, repair and replacement obligations, the unit owner shall also have the responsibility to obtain the prior written approval of the Association, through the Board of Directors, before performing any maintenance, repair or replacement which requires: changes or alterations to the physical appearance of the condominium property; excavation; access to building roof; removal or modification of any interior partitions walls, or cabinets, whether load-bearing or not; relocation of plumbing or electrical lines or fixtures; the use of heavy or noisy equipment; such other actions as may cause concern for the peace and safety of the condominium and its residents or the aesthetics of the condominium property. The association may condition such approval on criteria as the Board deems reasonable, including but not limited to, submission of a Unit Modification Request, and:

- Use of licensed and insured contractors and requiring proof of same;
- Oversight by the Association or its agent;
- The unit owner submitting plans as to the scope of the contemplated repair;
- Restrictions as to hours of work;
- Imposition of time limits in which jobs must be completed and prohibitions against major renovations during certain times of year.
- Restrictions regarding equipment that may be parked or stored on or near the condominium property during construction.
- Restrictions regarding storage of materials and supplies necessary for the construction to be performed.

Nothing shall preclude the Association from acting as the owner's agent and obtaining the services of Contractors to perform unit owner maintenance responsibilities, provided that the Association and the owner so agree and provided that the owner is deemed to consent to reimbursement of expenses incurred, secured by such rights as exist for collection common expenses under these condominium documents.

9.4. Balconies. Balconies are designated as part of the unit. The unit owner who has the right to the exclusive use of said balcony shall be responsible for the maintenance, care and preservation of: balcony floor coverings (the board may prohibit certain types of floor coverings or require the removal of existing coverings when necessary for the structural preservation of the building); storm shutters, including the removal and replacement of storm shutters if required by the Association in order to carry out its maintenance responsibilities; storm doors; all screening; the wiring, electrical outlet(s) and fixture(s) on or servicing the balcony; ceiling fans; and the replacement of light bulbs. For Phases Two, Three and Four, the Association shall maintain the sliding glass doors and the structural components thereof, including trim and caulking. For Phases Two, Three and Four, if a balcony has been enclosed or a window wall has been installed on the balcony, or such occurs at any time within the parameters as set forth at Article 9.1, the Association's maintenance responsibilities for sliding glass doors, balcony enclosures and window walls shall be as set forth at Article 9.1. For Phase One, the Association shall not be responsible for the maintenance, repair, or replacement of the sliding glass doors, but shall be responsible for the maintenance of the balcony enclosures/window walls. The Association shall be responsible for structural maintenance, repair and replacement of balcony railings, floors, ceiling and exterior portions, and also the building walls enclosed by the balconies, provided that painting and regular maintenance (nonstructural) of building walls enclosed by balconies shall be done by the unit owners, subject to the uniformity of appearance (e.g. color) and other criteria set forth in these condominium documents, or as determined by the Board. In the event a unit owner intends to paint the building walls enclosed by the balconies, such unit owner shall must obtain the prior written consent of the Board; provided that if the Board promulgates approved colors and paints, a unit owner may paint the building walls enclosed by the balconies in strict accordance therewith without the prior written consent of the Board. However, the Association may, if it elects, paint balcony walls and ceilings in connection with the painting of the building as either a common expense, or on a voluntary participation basis, as determined by the Board of Directors, Unit owners may not puncture (by nails, hooks, screws or otherwise) balcony floors, or ceilings, without obtaining the prior written approval of the Board of Directors.

9.5. Unit Floor Coverings. All units above ground floor shall always have the floors covered with wall-to-wall carpeting, except in kitchens, bathrooms, balconies, foyers, and utility or laundry rooms, except as provided below. Hard floor surfaces (tile, marble, wood, etc.) may only be installed upon prior written approval of the Board of Directors, which shall condition its approval on the unit owner's proof of the installation of appropriate sound-deadening material. Specifications for sound proofing of hard flooring must be approved in writing by the Board or its representative prior to installation, and then the installed sound proofing must be inspected and approved prior to installation of the hard flooring. The minimum sound proofing material that will be approved shall be of such kind and quality to achieve ASTM E90-02 (90 mil composite) installation. A sealant is required at the perimeter of the entire floor, and the periphery of all protrusions to that floor. This joint shall be ¼ inch wide (6.35 millimeters) from the finished top of the title. This joint must be filled with an elastomeric sealant or an acoustical sealant. Hard grout is unacceptable.

9.6. Alterations by Unit Owners. No owner may make or permit the making of any modification or alterations to his unit, the common elements, or the limited common elements, or in any manner change the appearance of any portion of the condominium, or make any structural change within the unit interior without first obtaining the written consent of the Board of Directors, which consent shall be denied if the Board determines that the proposed modifications or alterations would adversely affect, or in any manner be detrimental to, the condominium in part or whole. The Board may, in appropriate circumstances, require sealed plans from an Architect or Professional Engineer licensed to practice in Florida as a condition of reviewing any requested modification, alteration or addition to the condominium property. The Board, in reaching its decision, may take into account uniformity of appearance, compatibility with architecture in Punta Rassa Condominiums, the quality of the proposed alteration, objections of neighboring residents, and such other criteria as the Board may reasonably adopt in reaching its decision. If the Board determines to permit any alteration or addition which is visible from the exterior of the premises, from any vantage, said addition or improvement must also be approved by the unit owners manner provided in Article 9.8 of the Declaration of Condominium, regardless of the cost or expense of such addition or alteration, but such unit owner approval shall not be required in the case of balcony enclosures. If any unit owner requests approval of an alteration or modification involving the removal or modification of any interior partition or wall, the Association may permit such removal if the removal would not materially affect or interfere with the utility services constituting common elements, if any, located therein or the structural integrity of the building.

9.7. Additional Unit Owner Responsibility for Alterations and Additions. If a unit owner makes any modifications, installations, or additions to the interior or exterior of the unit, common elements, or limited common elements in accordance with Article 9.6 above, the unit owner (and his heirs, successors in title and assigns) shall be financially responsible for the insurance, maintenance, care, and preservation of the modifications, installations or additions and shall execute such documents as the Association may promulgate accepting said financial responsibility. Any modification, alteration, or addition to the condominium property made by a unit owner, and duly approved by the Board of Directors, may be required to be removed in connection with the Association's maintenance of the condominium property. In such cases, the unit owner who installs the alteration, addition, or improvement (and their successors in title) shall be obligated to reimburse the Association for any costs affiliated with removal and/or reinstallation of the item, with said obligation being secured by a right of lien for charges of equal dignity to the common expense lien created by the Declaration, or alternatively, said owner may be required to remove and reinstall said additions, if so determined by the Board of Directors. Further, the Association, its contractors and agents, shall not be liable for any damage to the item arising out of its removal and/or reinstallation, unless occasioned by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Association or its contractor or agent.

9.8. Alterations by Association. There shall be no material alterations or substantial additions to the Association Property, except as authorized by the Board of Directors. Provided, however, that if any such alteration or addition requires the expenditure of more than five percent of the Association's total budget for the fiscal year in which the work is authorized, the Board shall obtain approval of a two-thirds (2/3) of Voting Interests present (in person or by proxy) and voting at an Association meeting, or by written agreement of two-thirds (2/3) of the entire Voting Interest of the Association. Material alterations or substantial additions to the Common Elements of individual Condominiums shall be authorized as follows. The Board of Directors may authorize any alteration or addition which does not exceed five percent (5%) of the total budget for the Condominium for which the alteration or addition is proposed. Any material alteration of or substantial addition to Common Elements of a Condominium exceeding that amount shall be approved by two-thirds of the Voting Interests of the Condominium present (in person or by proxy) and voting at a meeting of the Association at which a Class Quorum has been obtained. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any alteration or addition to Common Elements of an individual Condominium (expecting those which are less than 5% of the Budget and which may be authorized by the Board) are visible from the exterior from the premises of any other Condominium, such alterations or additions shall be approved by two-thirds of the Voting Interests of the Association present (in person or by proxy) and voting at a meeting of the entire Association at which a quorum has been established, or by written agreement of two-thirds of the entire Voting Interests of the Association, even in cases where the expense of such alteration or addition is allocated as a Common Expense of the Condominium. The Board of Directors may determine the color cellular antennae and similar apparatus may be placed on the Condominium Property, as determined by the Board in agreements with the third parties. The rents and profits applicable to said arrangements shall be considered income for the Common Elements, or Association Property regardless of the level of expenditure, is the responsibility of the Board of Directors.

9.9. Enforcement of Maintenance. If, after reasonable notice, the owner of a unit fails to maintain the unit or other portions of the condominium property as required above, the Association shall have, without waiver of other remedies, the right to enter the owner's unit and perform or cause performance of the necessary work, and/or institute legal proceedings at law or in equity to enforce compliance, and/or to take any and all other lawful actions to remedy such violation, in which event the unit owner shall be charged for the costs of such activities (including attorney's fees incurred by the Association) by the Association which shall be secured by a lien for charges.

9.10. Negligence. Damage Caused by Condition of Unit. Each unit owner shall be liable to the Association and/or other unit owners for the expenses of any maintenance, repair or replacement of the condominium property, made necessary by his act or negligence, or by that of any member of his family or his or their guests, employees, agents or lessees. If any condition, defect or malfunction existing within a unit, if caused by the owner's negligence, shall cause damage to the common elements or to other units, the owner of the offending unit shall be liable to the person or entity responsible for repairing the damaged areas for all costs of repair or replacement not paid by insurance (including the deductible). If one or more of the units involved is not occupied at the time the damage is discovered, the Association may enter the unit(s) without prior notice to the owner(s) and take reasonable action to mitigate damage or prevent its spread, at the unit owner's expense. The Association may, but is not obligated to, repair the damage without the prior consent of the owner, in the event of an emergency, and the owner shall be responsible for reimbursement of the Association, with the cost being secured by a lien for charges. Unit owners are required to shut off all water valves when they will be absent from their units on an overnight basis.

10. ASSESSMENTS AND CHARGES. Assessments against owners shall be made by the Board of Directors of the Association, in the manner provided in the By-Laws and as follows and shall be borne by the unit owners on the same basis as their percentage of ownership of the entire condominium as set forth in Article 6.

10.1. Liability for Assessments. A unit owner, regardless of how title is required, including a purchaser at a judicial sale, shall be liable for all assessments coming due while he/she is the Unit Owner. The grantee shall be jointly and severally liable with the grantor for all unpaid assessments against the grantor for his/her share of the common expenses including attorney's fees and other costs of collection incurred by the Association up to the time of the conveyance, without prejudice to any right the grantee may have to recover from the grantor the amounts paid by the grantee. The liability for assessments may not be avoided by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any common elements or by the abandonment of the Unit for which the assessments are made.

10.2. Default in Payment of Assessments for Common Expenses. Assessments and installments thereof not paid within thirty (30) days from the date when they are due shall incur a late fee and bear interest in an amount as determined by the Board of Directors up to the maximum allowed by law. The Association has a lien on each condominium parcel for any unpaid assessments on such parcel, with interest, late charges and for reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred by the Association incident to the collection of the assessment or enforcement of the lien. The lien is in effect until all sums secured by it have been fully paid or until barred by law. A claim of lien shall relate back to the date of filing of the original Declaration of Condominium. Upon payment, the condominium parcel is entitled to a satisfaction of the lien. The Association may bring an action in its name to foreclose a lien for assessments in the manner a mortgage of real property is foreclosed and may also bring an action to recover a money judgement for the unpaid assessments without waiving any claim of lien.

10.3. Notice of Intent to Foreclose Lien. No foreclosure judgement may be entered until at least thirty (30) days after the Association gives written notice to the Unit Owner of its intention to foreclose its lien to collect the unpaid assessments. If this notice is not given at least thirty days before the foreclosure action is filed, and if the unpaid assessments, including those coming due after the claim of lien is recorded, are paid before the entry of a final judgement or foreclosure, the Association shall not recover attorney's fees or costs. The notice must be given by delivery of a copy of it to the Unit Owner or by certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the Unit Owner. If after diligent search and inquiry the Association cannot find the Unit Owner or a mailing address at which the Unit Owner will receive the notice, the court may proceed with the foreclosure action and may award attorney's fees and costs as permitted by law. The notice requirements of this sub-section are satisfied if the Unit Owner records a Notice of Contest of Lien as provided in the Act.

10.4. Appointment of Receiver to Collect Rental. If the Unit Owner remains in possession of the Unit and the claim of lien is foreclosed the county in its discretion may require the Unit Owner to pay a reasonable rental for the Unit and the Association is entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the rent.

10.5. First Mortgagee. The priority of the Association's lien and the obligation for payment of past due assessments in relation to first mortgagees who obtain title as a result of foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure, shall be determined by the Florida Condominium Act, Chapter 718, Florida Statutes (2010), as amended from time to time.

10.6. Possession of Unit. Any person who acquires an interest in a Unit, except First Mortgagees through foreclosure of a first mortgage or record (or deed in lieu thereof), including without limitation persons acquiring title by operation of law shall not be entitled to occupancy of the Unit or enjoyment of the common elements until such time as all unpaid assessments and gather charges due and owing by the former Owner, if any, have been paid. Possession shall be subject to all other Association requirements pertaining thereto.

10.7. Certificate of Unpaid Assessments. Any Unit Owner has the right to require from the Association a certificate showing the amount of unpaid assessments against him/her with respect to his/her Unit.

10.8. Lien for Charges. There is hereby created a common law and contractual lien to secure any service which the Association provides for an individual member and which is not otherwise secured by the statutory lien for common expenses created herein. By way of example, but not limitation, a lien for changes exists to secure repayment to the Association when it must remove or reinstall unit owner alterations or items of unit owner maintenance responsibility in connection with the Association's discharge of its common element maintenance responsibilities. The lien for charges shall be of equal priority to, shall be secured as to interest, late fees and attorney's fees and the like, and shall be foreclosed in the same manner as the common expense lien.

10.9. Suspension; Fine; Voting Rights. In accordance with the provisions of Section 718.303(3), Florida Statutes (2010), as amended from time to time, if a unit owner is delinquent for more than ninety (90) days in paying a monetary obligation due to the association, the association may suspend the right of a unit owner or a unit's occupant, licensee, or invitee to use the common elements, common facilities, or any other condominium or association property until the monetary obligation is paid. This Section 10.9 does not apply to limited common elements intended to be used only by that unit, common elements that must be used to access the unit, utility services provided to the unit, parking spaces, or elevators. Use or visitation without consideration (payment) distinguishes a guest usage from tenancy. There are various types of guest uses, which are regulated as follows:

14.1. Non-Overnight Visitation by Guests when Unit Owner or Tenant is in Residence.

There is no restriction against this type of guest usage, provided that same does not create a nuisance or annoyance to other condominium residents, nor prevent their peaceful enjoyment of the premises. The Association may restrict or prohibit guest visitation by convicted felons, including but not limited to registered sex offenders and persons who have been convicted of narcotic offenses. The Board may adopt rules and regulations requiring registration and approval of non-related guests. Non-overnight guests shall be entitled to use the Condominium facilities only when accompanied by the unit owner or tenant (or an adult resident member of the unit owner's or tenant's family). The Board may establish additional restrictions on non-overnight guest usage of Condominium facilities, such as maximum numbers of guests who may use common facilities, maximum numbers of common facility usage per guest, and the like.

14.2. Overnight Guests When Unit Owner or Tenant is in Residence.

Unit owners and tenants (and their respective families) may have related or unrelated overnight guests, so long as the unit owner or tenant is in simultaneous residence. The Board may adopt rules and regulations requiring registration and approval of non-related guests. The Association may restrict or prohibit visitation by convicted felons, including but not limited to registered sex offenders and persons who have been convicted of narcotic offenses. Overnight guests' use of Condominium facilities are subject to the same provisions as use of Condominium facilities by Non-Overnight Guests.

14.3. Non-Overnight Guests in the Absence of the Owner or Tenant.

Unit owners and tenants are not permitted to have non-overnight guests when the unit owner is absent from the condominium. 14.4.2. Related Overnight Guests may occupy a unit in the absence of the owner. For the purpose of this clause, “related” means all persons staying in the unit on an overnight basis, in the absence of the owner, who are related to the unit owner or primary occupant (by blood, marriage or adoption) to the following degree: parent, grandparent, child, grandchild, or sibling. The limitation on unit density in Article 14.2 applies. Ten (10) days prior notice to the Association is required.

14.5. Additional Board Authority. The Board may promulgate such rules, policies, and procedures as are necessary to implement this Article. In the event that unit owners are suspected of circumventing rental restrictions by receiving consideration for occupancies which are held out as guest occupancies, the Association may require proposed guest occupants to submit proof of familial/relationship, an affidavit as to absence of payment for the right to occupy the premises, and the like.

15. LEASING. The lease of a unit is defined as occupancy of the unit by any person other than the unit owner, whether pursuant to verbal or written agreement, where said occupancy by the non-owner involves consideration (the payment of money, the exchange of goods or services, etc.). The term “leasing” and “renting” shall be used interchangeably for the purpose of this Declaration of Condominium. The term “tenant” and “lease” shall likewise be used interchangeably. Should a unit owner wish to lease his unit, he shall furnish the Association with a copy of the proposed lease (which shall be in the form promulgated by the Board of Directors) and the name of the proposed lease, as well as all proposed occupants. The Association has the authority and shall have fourteen (14) days from the receipt of notice within which to approve or disapprove of the proposed lease or proposed leases or occupants. The Association shall give the unit owner written notice of its decision within said period. Failure to notify the unit owner shall be deemed an approval. No individual rooms may be rented, and no transient tenants may be accommodated, “Rent-sharing” and subleasing is prohibited. All leases shall be for a minimum period of thirty (30) consecutive days or one calendar month whichever is less and for a maximum period of one (1) year.

The Board shall have the authority to promulgate or require unit owners to use a uniform lease and require such other information from the proposed tenant and all proposed occupants as the Board deems appropriate under the circumstances. The Board may require an interview of any proposed tenant and their spouse, if any, and all proposed occupants of s unit, as a condition for approval.

15.2. Tenant Conduct, Remedies. All leases shall be on a uniform form of lease or lease addendum if so promulgated by the Association. Uniform leases, addenda and all other leases will provide or be deemed to provide that the tenants have read and agreed to be bound by the Declaration of Condominium, Articles of Incorporation, By-Laws and Rules and Regulations as the same may be deemed from time to time, (the "Condominium Documents"). The uniform lease or addendum and other leases shall further provide or be deemed to provide that any violation of the Condominium Documents shall constitute a material breach of the lease and subject the tenant to eviction as well as any other remedy afforded by the Condominium Documents or Florida law. If a tenant fails to abide by the Condominium Documents, the unit owner(s) shall be responsible for the conduct of the tenant and shall be subject to all remedies set forth in the Condominium Documents and Florida law, without waiver of any remedy available to the Association as to the tenant. The unit owner shall have the duty to bring his tenant's conduct into compliance with the Condominium Documents by whatever action is necessary, including without limitation the institution of eviction proceedings without notice to cure, where legally permissible. If the unit owner fails to bring the conduct of the tenant into compliance with the Condominium Documents, the Association shall have the authority to act as agent of the unit owner to undertake whatever action is necessary to abate the tenant's noncompliance with the Condominium Documents, including without limitation the right to institute an action for eviction against the tenant in the name of the Association or as agent of the unit owner. In the event that a unit owner becomes delinquent in paying any monetary obligation to the Association, the Association may see payment directly from a tenant in accordance with Section 718.116(11), Florida Statutes (2010). The Association shall not become a landlord under Chapter 83 of the Florida Statutes by collection rent from the Tenant, and specifically assumes no duties under Section 83.51, Florida Statutes 92010). Notwithstanding the foregoing, in addition to all other rights, remedies and privileges of the Association under Chapter 718, Florida Statutes (2010), as amended from time to time, the Association may sue for eviction and issue notices in the event that the tenant fails to make required payments to the Association. This Section 15.3 and the provisions of Section 718.116(11) shall be deemed incorporated into any lease, whether or not provided therein.

15.4. Security Deposit. The Board of Directors shall have the authority, as a condition of granting approval to a lease or renewal or extension thereof, to require that a prospective lease or unit owner place a security deposit in an amount not to exceed the equivalent of one month's rent into an escrow account maintained by the Association to protect against damage to the common elements or Association property. Payment of interest, claims against the deposit, refunds and disputes under this paragraph shall be handled in the same fashion as provided in Part II Chapter 83 of the Florida Statutes (2010) as amended from time to time.

15.5. Approval Process, Disapproval. Any unit owner intending to lease his unit shall submit an application and any other requested information and fees at least thirty (30) days in advance of the commencement of the lease or renewal or extension term. Upon receipt of all information and fees required by the Association, the Association shall have the duty to approve or disapprove all proposed leases within thirty (30) days of receipt of such information for approval and the completion of the tenant interview (if required), by sending written notification to the unit owner with such time frame. Applications for renewals or extensions of lease agreements shall be submitted at least thirty (30) days in advance of the expiration of the lease agreement. If the Association disapproves a proposed lease or renewal or extension, the unit owner shall receive a short statement indicating the reason for the disapproval, and the lease shall not be made, renewed or extended. The Association shall neither have a duty to provide an alternate lease nor shall it assume any responsibility for the denial of a lease application if any denial is based upon any of the following factors:

15.5.1. The person seeking approval (which shall hereinafter include all proposed occupants) has been convicted of a crime involving violence to persons, a crime demonstrating dishonesty or moral turpitude or any felony;

15.5.2. The application for approval on its face, facts discovered in connection with the Association's investigation, or the conduct of the applicant, indicates that the person seeking approval intends to conduct himself in a manner inconsistent with the Condominium Documents. By way of example, but not limitation, a tenant taking possession of the premises prior to approval by the Association as provided for herein shall constitute a presumption that the applicant's conduct is inconsistent with the Condominium Documents;

15.5.3. The person seeking approval has a history of disruptive behavior or disregard for the rights and property of others as evidenced by his conduct in other housing facilities or association, or by his conduct in this Condominium as a tenant, unit owner or occupant of a unit;

15.5.4. The person seeking approval has failed to provide the information, fees or appearances required to process the application in a timely manner;

15.5.5 All assessments, fines and other charges against the unit and/or unit owner have not been paid in full.

15.6. Liability. The liability of the unit owner under the Condominium Documents shall continue notwithstanding the fact that he may have leased or rented his interest on the unit as provided herein.

15.7. Association Fee. The unit owner or lease seeking approval of a lease of a unit parcel shall pay a transfer fee for each applicant in an apartment determined by the Board but not exceeding the maximum permitted by law per transaction. No charge shall be made in connection with an extension or renewal of a lease.

16. MAINTENANCE OF COMMUNITY INTERESTS. In order to maintain a community of congenial Unit owners who are financially responsible, and thus protect the value of the Nits, the use and transfer of Units by any owner shall be subject to the following provisions as long as the Condominium exists upon the land, which provisions each Unit owner covenants to observe:

16.1. Forms of Ownership.

16.1.1 Ownership by Individuals. A unit may be owned by one natural person who has qualified and been approved as elsewhere provided herein.

16.1.2. Co-Ownership. Co-ownership of units may be permitted. If the co-owners are other than husband and wife, the Board shall condition its approval upon the designation of one approved natural person as "primary occupant". The use of the unit by other persons shall be as if the primary occupant was the only actual owner. Any changes in the primary occupant shall be treated as a transfer of ownership by sale or gift subject to the provisions of the Condominium Documents. No more than one such change will be approved in any twelve (12) month. No time share estates may be created. "House Sharing" by multiple families is prohibited.

16.1.3. Ownership by Corporations, Partnerships or Trusts. A unit may be owned in trust, or by a corporation, partnership or other entity which is not a natural person, if approved in the manner provided elsewhere herein. The intent of this provision is to allow flexibility in estate, financial or tax planning, and not to create circumstances in which the unit may be used as a short-term or transient accommodation for several individuals or families. The approval of a partnership, trustee, or corporation or other entity as a unit owner shall be conditioned upon designation by the owner of one natural person to be the "primary occupant". The use of the unit by other persons shall be as if the primary occupant were the only actual owner. Any change in this primary occupant shall be treated as a transfer of ownership by sale or gift subject to the provisions of the Condominium Documents. No more than one such change will be approved in any twelve (12) month period.

16.1.4. Life Estate. A unit may be subject to a life estate, either by operation of law or by voluntary conveyance approved as provided below. In that event, the life tenant shall be the only member from such unit, and occupancy of the unit shall be as if the life tenant were the only owner. Upon termination of the life estate, the holders of the remainder interest shall have no occupancy right unless separately approved by the Association. The life tenant shall be liable for all assessments and charges against the unit. Any vote, consent or approval required by the Condominium Documents or law shall be given by the life tenant alone, and the vote, consent or approval of the holders of the remainder interest shall not be required. If there is more than one life tenant, they shall be treated as co-owners for purposes of determining voting and occupancy rights.

16.2. Transfers Subject to Approval.

16.2.1. Sale or Other Transfer. No unit owner may dispose of a Unit or any interest in same by sale or other title transfer without prior written approval of the Board of Directors. A unit owner may dispose of a Unit or any interest therein by other means (including agreement for deed, installment sales contract, lease-option or other similar transactions) without prior written approval by the Board of Directors.

16.2.2. Gift. If any Unit owner shall acquire his title by gift, the continuance of his ownership of his Unit shall be subject to the approval of the Board of Directors. Notice must be given at least thirty (30) days prior to the intended closing or title transfer date.

16.2.3. Devise or Inheritance. If any Unit owner shall acquire his title by devise or inheritance, the continuance of his ownership of his Unit shall be subject to the approval of the Board of Directors. If any Unit owner acquires his title by devise or inheritance, his right to occupy or use the unit shall be subject to the approval of the Board of Directors. Approval to own or occupy may not be denied to any devisee or heir who was the prior owner's lawful spouse at the time of death or was related to the deceased owner by blood or by adoption.

16.2.4. Other Transfers. If any Unit owner shall acquire his title by any manner considered in the foregoing subsections, the continuance of his ownership of such unit shall be subject to the approval of the Board of Directors. If any person acquires title in any manner not considered in the foregoing subsections, that person shall have no right to occupy or use the unit before being approved by the Board of Directors under the procedures outlined below.

16.3. Approval by Association. The approval of the Association that is required for the transfer of ownership of Units shall be obtained in the following manner:

16.3.1. Notice to Board of Directors.

The Board may require, without limitation, credit history, a criminal background investigation, past residency or employment verification, personal references, and a personal interview with the purchaser(s) and all proposed unit occupants. 16.3.1.3. Failure to Give Notice. If the above requires notice to the Board of Directors is not given, then at any time after receiving knowledge of a transaction or event transferring ownership or possession of a Unit, the Board of Directors at its election and without notice may approve or disapprove the transaction or ownership. If the Board of Directors disapproves the transaction or ownership, the Board of Directors shall proceed as if it had received the required notice on the date of such disapproval.

16.3.2. Certificate of Approval.

16.3.2.1. Sale. If the proposed transaction is a sale, then within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and information, including a personal interview if requested by Board of Directors, the Board of Directors must either approve or disapprove the proposed transaction.

16.3.2.2. Gift, Devise or Inheritance; other Transfers. If the Unit owner giving notice has acquired his title by gift, devise or inheritance, or in any other manner, then within thirty (30) days after of such notice and information the Board of Directors, including a personal interview of requested by the Board of Directors must either approve or disapprove the continuance of the Unit owner's ownership of his Unit.

16.3.2.3. Approval of Occupant. If the Unit Owner or purchaser is a corporation, partnership, trust, some other entity or more than one individual who are not husband and wife, the approval of ownership by the corporation, partnership, trust or other entity or multiple persons shall be conditioned upon approval of a Primary Occupant.

16.4. Disapproval by Board of Directors. If the Unit Owner or purchaser is a corporation, partnership, trust, some other entity, or more than one individual who are not husband and wife, the approval of ownership by the corporation, partnership, trust, other entity or multipole persons shall be conditioned upon approval of a Primary Occupant.

16.4.1. Sale. If the proposed transaction is a sale and if the notice of sale given by the Unit owner shall so demand, then within fifteen (15) days after receipt of such notice and information the Association shall deliver or mail by certified mail to the Unit owner and agreement to purchase the Unit concerned by a purchase approved by the Board of Directors (including the Association itself) who will purchase and to whom the Unit Owner must sell the Unit upon the following terms:

16.4.1.1. At the option of the Association to be stated in the agreement, the price to be paid shall be that stated in the disapproved contract to sell or shall be the fair market value determined by arbitration in accordance with the then existing rules of the American Arbitration Association, except that the arbitrators shall be two appraisers, one of whom shall be appointed by the Unit owner and the other of whom shall be appointed by the Association, who shall base their determination upon an average of their appraisals of the Unit; and a judgment of specific performance of the sale upon the award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. The expense of the arbitration shall be shared by the parties.

16.4.1.2. The purchase price shall be paid in cash. The sale shall be closed within thirty (30) days after the delivery or mailing of the agreement to purchase, or within ten (10) days after the determination of the sale price if such is by arbitration, whichever is the later. If the Association shall fail to provide a purchaser upon the demand of the Unit owner in the manner provided, or if a purchaser furnished by the Association shall default in his agreement to purchase, then notwithstanding the disapproval, the proposed transaction shall be deemed to have been approved and the Association shall furnish a certificate of approval.

16.4.2. Gifts, Devise or Inheritance; Other Transfers. If the Unit Owner giving notice has acquired his title by gift, devise or inheritance, or in any other manner, then within thirty (30) days after receipt from the Unit owner of the notice and information required to be furnished, the Board of Directors shall deliver or mail by certified mail to the Unit Owner an agreement to purchase the Unit concerned by a purchaser approved by the Board of Directors (including the Association itself) who will purchase and to whom the Unit Owner must sell the Unit upon the following terms:

16.4.2.1. The sale price shall be the fair market value determined by agreement between the seller and purchaser within thirty (30) days from the delivery or mailing of such agreement. In the absence of agreement as to price, the price shall be determined by arbitration in accordance with the then existing rules of the American Arbitration Association, except that the arbitrators shall be two appraisals one of whom shall be appointed by the Association and the other of whom shall be appointed by the Unit Owner who shall base their determination upon an average of their appraisals of the Unit; and a judgment of specific performance of the sale upon the award by the arbitrators may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. The expense of the arbitration shall be shared by the parties.

16.4.2.2. The purchase price shall be paid in cash. The sale shall be closed within ten (10) days following the determination of the sale price. If the Board of Directors shall fail to provide a purchaser as requires by this instrument or if a purchaser furnished by the Association shall default in his agreement to purchase, then notwithstanding the disapproval, such ownership shall be deemed to have been approved, and the Association shall furnish a certificate of approval as elsewhere provided, which shall be recorded in the public records of Lee County, Florida, at the expense of the Unit Owner.

16.4.3. Disapproved for Good Cause. Approval of the Association for title transfers shall be withheld only if a majority of the whole Board so votes. The Board shall consider the following factors and may confer freely with counsel in reaching its decision. Only the following may be deemed to constitute good cause for disapproval:

16.4.3.1. The application for approval on its face, or subsequent investigation thereof, indicates that the person seeking approval (which shall hereinafter include all proposed occupants) intends to conduct himself in a manner inconsistent with the covenants and restrictions applicable to the condominium.

16.4.3.2. The person seeking approval (which shall include all proposed occupants) has been convicted of a crime involving violence to persons, a crime demonstrating dishonesty or moral turpitude or any felony;

16.4.3.3. The person seeking approval has a record of financial irresponsibility, including without limitation prior bankruptcies, foreclosures or bad debts.

16.4.3.4. The person seeking approval has a history of disruptive behavior or disregard for the rights and property of others as evidenced by his conduct in other social organizations or association, or by his conduct in this condominium or other residences as a tenant, or owner;

16.4.3.5. The person seeking approval failed to provide the information, fees or appearance required to process the application in a timely manner;

16.4.3.6. The unit owner requesting the transfer has had fines assessed against him or her which have not been paid; or 16.4.3.7. All assessments and other charges against the unit have not been paid in full.

If the Board disapproves a prospective transfer on the grounds for disapproval set forth above, the Association shall have no duty to purchase the unit or furnish an alternate purchaser, and the transaction shall be made.

16.5. Transfer Fee. The Association may charge a processing fee for the approval of transfers of title. The fee may not exceed the maximum permitted by law per transaction.

16.6. Unauthorized Transactions. Any sale, lease, mortgage or other transfer of ownership or possession not authorized pursuant to the terms of this Declaration shall be voidable unless subsequently approved by the Association.

16.7. Maximum Number of Units Owned. In order to impart a continuity of residence, limit acquisition of Units primarily for institutional or commercial investment purposes, inhibit transiency, avoid the deleterious effects of financial delinquency of a Unit Owner of a large block of Units, and safeguard property values, no natural person or artificial entity (including, but not limited to, corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships, or trusts), or any officer, director, member, manager, shareholder, general partner, limited partner, beneficiary, trustee, or principal thereof, may hold a legal, equitable or contractual interest in more than two (2) Units within the Punta Rassa Complex (all four Condominiums) at the same time. Neither shall any artificial entity which has officers, directors, shareholders, members, managers, beneficiaries, trustees, or similar persons, in common with any other artificial entity ("affiliated persons or entities"), or individual Unit Owner, as determined in the sole discretion of the Board, hold an interest in more than two (2) Units within the Punta Rassa Complex (all four Condominiums) at the same time. Further, no person who is related to an Unit Owner (by blood, marriage or adoption) or who has contractual relationships (whether written or verbal) with another Unit Owner involving Unit ownership matters, shall be permitted to own a Unit, if same would exceed the two (2) Unit ownership limit, unless said person acquires and actually uses said Unit as a bona fide residence for said person. Any person, entity or affiliated persons or entities owning two (2) Units must be the permanent occupant of one said Units and may rent the other (but may not rent the Unit specified for occupancy, including seasonal occupancy).

It is the intention of this clause that Unit Owners or financially related persons or entities shall only own a maximum of two (2) Units, shall reside in one of them, may rent the second Unit, and that blocks of more than two (2) Units shall not be owned by individuals, families, or artificial entities or related parties for investment/rental purposes. The restrictions contained in this section do not apply to an institutional mortgagee's security interest in Units, nor the ability of such institutional mortgagees to acquire title through foreclosure or deed of lieu of foreclosure but shall apply to any conveyance by such institutional mortgagee after acquisition of title by foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise. An institutional mortgagee shall mean any entity that regularly lends money for the financing of the acquisition of real property and is licensed or otherwise legally permitted to do so in the State of Florida. The Board may enact additional rules and regulations as may be necessary or desirable, as deemed by the Board, to clarify, interpret, apply or enforce this provision.

17. METHOD OF AMENDMENT OF DECLARATION. Except as elsewhere provided otherwise, this Declaration of Condominium may be amended in the following manner:

17.1. Proposal of Amendments. An amendment may be proposed by either a majority of the Directors or by twenty-five percent (25%) of the entire voting interests.

17.2. Proposed Amendment Format. Proposals to amend the existing Declaration of Condominium shall contain the full text of the Article to be amended. New words shall be underlined and words to be deleted shall be ~~lined through with hyphens~~. If the proposed change is so extensive that this procedure would hinder rather than assist understanding, a notation must be inserted immediately preceding the proposed amendment saying "SUBSTANTIAL REWORDING OF DECLARATION OF CONDOMINIUM. SEE ARTICLE NUMBER FOR PRESENT TEXT."

17.3. Notice. Copies of proposed amendments shall be included in the notice of any meeting at which a proposed amendment is to be considered or in connection with documentation for action without a meeting.

17.4. Adoption of Amendments. A resolution for the adoption of a proposed amendment may be adopted by a vote of sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 2/3%) of the Voting Interests present (in person or by proxy) and voting at a duly noticed meeting at which a quorum is present, or by the written agreement of sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 2/3%) of the entire Voting Interests. Amendments correcting errors, omissions or scrivener's errors may be executed by the officers of the Association, upon Board approval, without need for Association membership vote.

17.5. Individual Condominium Amendments, Association-Wide Amendments. The Board of Directors of the Association shall have the authority to determine whether to propose and/or apply proposed amendments to only this Condominium (i.e. "Individual Condominium Amendments"), or to all four Condominiums, (i.e. "Association-Wide Amendments"). In cases where the Board applies the amendment to all Condominiums, the term Voting Interest of the Association shall apply to all units operated by the Association, without regard to condominium by voting percentages and the like will be determined on a condominium by condominium basis. In all cases the final decision as to whether to apply "Individual Condominium" or "Association-Wide" applied to amendments of covenants and restrictions that are consistent with the operation of Punta Rassa as a Single development. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and the Board's discretion, in general, matters such as the allocation of maintenance and repair responsibilities between the individual Unit Owner and the Association, which affect only the financial interest of the members of a particular Condominium, will be considered the type of amendment to be voted upon on an Individual Condominium amendment basis.

17.6. Effective Date. An amendment when adopted shall become effective after being recorded in the Lee County Public Records according to law.

17.7. Automatic Amendment. Whenever Chapter 718, Florida Statutes (2010) Chapter 617, Florida Statutes (2010) or other applicable states or administrative regulations, as amended from time to time, are amended to impose procedural requirements less stringent than set forth in this Declaration of Condominium, the Board may operate the Association pursuant to the less stringent requirements. The Board of Directors, without a vote of the owners, may adopt by majority vote, amendments to this Declaration of Condominium as the Board deems necessary to comply with such operational changes as may be enacted by future amendments to Chapters 607, 617, and 718 of the Florida Statutes (2010), or such other statutes or administrative regulations as required for the operation of the Association, all as amended from time to time.

17.8. Proviso. Provided, however, that no amendment shall change the configuration of any unit or the share in the common elements appurtenant to it, or increase the owner's share of the common expenses, unless the record owner of the unit concerned and all record owners of the mortgages on such apartment shall join in the execution of the amendment, and all other unit owners approve the amendment.

18. TERMINATION. In addition to the provisions of Section 718.117, Florida Statutes (2010), as amended from time to time, the Condominiums may be terminated in the following manner:

18.1. Owner Approval. By the agreement of 100% of the owners in any Condominium and the holders of liens, or such other percentage as may be specified on the Act, which agreement shall be evidenced by an instrument or instruments executed in the manner required for conveyance of land. Terminations may also be effective when the property is not reconstructed after casualty, as provided in Article 12 hereof. The Termination shall become effective when such agreement has been recorded in the public records.

18.2. Shares of Unit Owners After Termination. After termination of any Condominium, the owners therein shall own the property as tenants-in-common in undivided shares, and the holders of mortgages and liens against the unit or units formerly owned by such owners shall have mortgages and liens upon the respective undivided shares of the owners. Such undivided shares of the owners shall be as set forth in Article 6 hereof. All funds of the Condominiums help by the Association, except for the reasonably necessary expenses of winding up, shall be disbursed to the unit owners and mortgages as their interest may appear in the shares set forth in Article 6. The costs incurred by the Association in connection with a termination of a Condominium shall be a Common Expense of the Condominium.

18.3. Following Termination. The property may be partitioned and sold upon the application of any owner in the affected Condominium. Provided, however, that if the Board of Directors following a termination determines to accept an offer for the sale of the condominium property, each owner in that Condominium shall, by his acceptance of a deed to his unit, be deemed to have granted power of attorney to the Board of Directors to execute such deeds and other documents required to effect sale. In such event, any action for partition shall be held in abeyance pending sale, and upon the consummation thereof shall be discontinued by all parties thereto.

19. CONDEMNATION.

19.1. Awards. The taking of all or any part of the condominium property by condemnation or eminent domain shall be deemed to be a casualty to the portion taken, and the awards for that taking shall be deemed to be proceeds from insurance on account of the casualty. Even though the awards may be payable to unit owners, the unit owners shall deposit the awards with the Association, and if any fail to do so, a special assessment shall be made against a defaulting unit owner in the amount of this award, or the amount of the award shall be set off against any sums payable to that owner.

19.2. Determination Whether to Continue Condominiums. Whether the condominiums will be continued after condemnation will be decided in the same manner as repair after casualty as set forth in Paragraph 13 hereof.

19.3. Distribution of Funds. If the Association is terminated after condemnation, the proceeds of all awards and special assessments shall be owned and distributed in the manner provided for insurance proceeds when a condominium is terminated after a casualty. If the Condominium is not terminated after condemnation, the size of the Condominium may be reduced. The owners of condemned units, if any, will share in awards and special assessments as provided below.

19.4. Association as Agent. The Association is hereby irrevocably appointed as each unit owner's attorney-in-fact for purposes of negotiating or litigating with the condemning authority for the purpose of realizing just compensation for the taking.

19.5. Units Reduced but Tenatable. If the taking reduces the size of a unit and the remaining portion of the unit can be made tenatable, the awards for the taking of a portion of that unit shall be used for the following purposes in the order stated, and the following changes shall be affected in the condominiums.

19.5.1 Restoration of Unit. The unit shall be made tenatable. If the cost of the restoration exceeds the amount of the award, the additional funds required shall be assessed against the owner of the unit.

19.5.2. Distribution of Surplus. The balance of the award, if any, shall be distributed to the owner of the unit and to each mortgagee of the unit, the remittance being made payable jointly to the owner and mortgagees.

19.5.3. Adjustment of Shares in Common Elements. If the floor area of a unit is reduced by the taking, the number representing the share in the common elements appurtenant to the unit shall be reduced in the proportion by which the floor area of the unit is reduced by the taking, and then the shares of all unit owners in the common elements shall be restated as percentages of the total of the numbers representing their original shares as reduced by the taking.

19.6. Units not Tenatable. If the taking of any unit so reduced the size of a unit that it cannot be made tenatable as determined by the Board or appropriate governmental agency, the award for the taking of the unit shall be used for the following purposes in the order states, and the following changes shall be affected in the condominiums.

19.6.1. Payment of Award. The condemnation award immediately prior to the taking shall be paid to the owner of the unit and to each mortgagee of the unit, the remittance being made payable jointly to the owner and mortgagee(s).

19.6.2 Addition to Common Elements. If possible and practical, the remaining portion of the unity shall become a part of the common elements and shall be placed in condition for use by all unit owners in the Condominium in the manner approved by the Board of Directors.

19.6.3. Assessments. If the amount of the award for taking is not sufficient to pay the fair market value of the condemned unit to the unit owner and to recondition the remaining portion of the unit, the amount required for those purposes shall be raised by special assessment against all of the unit owners in the affected Condominium who will continue as owners of any unit after the changes in the condominiums effected by the taking. The assessments shall be made in proportion to the shares of those owners in the common elements after the changes effected by the taking.

19.7. Taking of Common Elements or Association Property. Awards for the taking of common elements shall be used to make the remaining portion of the common elements or Association Property usable in the manner approved by the Board of Directors. The balance of such awards, if any, shall be distributed to the unit owners in the shares in which they own common elements (or on a 1/194 basis as to Association Property) after adjustment of these shares on account of the condemnation, if a unit is mortgaged, the remittance for Common Element purposes shall be paid jointly to the owner and mortgagee(s) of the unit.

19.8. Amendment of Declaration. The changes in units, in the common elements and in the ownership of the common elements that are necessitated by condemnation shall be evidenced by an amendment of the Declaration of Condominium that need be approved only by a majority of all Directors of the Board.

20. COMPLIANCE AND DEFAULT.

20.1. Duty to Comply; Right to Sue. Each unit owner, his tenants and guests, and the Association shall be governed by and shall comply with the provisions of the Condominium Act, this Declaration, and the documents creating the Association, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations. Action for damages or for injunctive relief, or both, for failure to comply may be brought by the Association or by a unit owner against:

20.1.1. The Association;

20.1.2. A unit owner; or

20.1.3. Anyone who occupies a unit as a tenant or is a guest in a unit.

20.2. Waiver of Rights. The failure of the Association to enforce any right, provision, covenant or condition which may be granted by the condominium documents shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the Association to enforce such right, provision, covenant or condition in the future. A provision of the Condominium Act may not be waived if the waiver would adversely affect the rights of the owner or defeat the purpose of the provision, except that unit owners or Directors may waive notice of specific meetings as provided in the By-Laws.

20.3. Attorney's Fees. In any legal proceeding arising out of an alleged failure of a unit owner tenant, guest, invitee or the Association to comply with the requirements of the Condominium Act or the Condominium Documents, as they may be amended from time to time, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover costs and expenses of the proceeding and a reasonable attorney's fee before trial, at trial and on appeal. The Association may also recover attorney's fees or incurs because of noncompliance with the condominium documents in cases where no court action is filed including, but not limited to, arbitration and pre-litigation fees incurred in the collection of delinquent assessments, and fees reasonably uncured by the Association in obtaining compliance with the Condominium Documents. Said costs and fees shall be secured by a lien for charges, as provided in Article 10.8 hereof.

20.4. No Election of Remedies. All rights, remedies and privileges granted to the Association or unit owners under any terms, provisions, covenants, or conditions of the condominium documents shall be deemed to be cumulative, and the exercise of any one or more shall not be deemed to constitute an election of remedies, nor shall it preclude the party from exercising such other additional rights, remedies, or privileges as may be granted by the Condominium Documents, or at law or in equity.

20.5. Notice of Lien or Suit.

20.5.1. Notice of Lien. A unit owner shall give to the Association written notice of every lien upon his unit other than for permitted first mortgages, taxes and special assessments, within five (5) days after the unit owner receives actual notice of the attachment thereof.

20.5.2. Notice of Suit. A unit owner shall give notice, in writing, to the Association of every suit or other proceeding which may affect the title to his unit, such notice to be given five (5) days after the unit owner receives actual knowledge thereof.

20.5.3. Failure to Comply. Failure of an owner to comply with this Section 20.5 will not affect the validity of any judicial law suit, however, the failure may render the owner liable to any party injured by such failure.

21. ADDITIONAL BOARD AUTHORITY. In addition to Board authority granted by law and the Condominium Documents, the Board shall have the following power and authority after a casualty:

2. MEMBERS' MEETINGS.

2.1 Annual Meetings. Annual members' meetings shall be held at such convenient location in Lee County as may be determined by the Board of Directors. The annual meeting shall be held on the date and tie determined by the Board for the purpose of transacting any business authorized to be transacted by the members. The Board shall be able to move the annual meeting to a later month (i.e. move the meeting from November of one year to February of the next year) in order to hold the meeting at a time when more Owners are in residence, even if doing so will mean that a period of more than one year will pass between annual meetings.

2.2 Special Meetings. Special members' meetings shall be held whenever called by the President or by a majority of the Board of Directors and shall be called by the President within a reasonable time of receipt of written notice from 25% of the Voting Interests of the Association (or 25% of the Voting Interests of the Condominium, where appropriate). Members' meetings to recall a member or members of the Board of Directors may be called by 10% of the Voting Interests of the Association who shall give notice of the meeting, stating the purpose of the meeting, pursuant to Chapter 718.112(2)(k), Florida Statutes (2010), as amended from time to time.

2.3 Notice of Members' Meetings. Notice of annual members' meetings, stating the time, place, and purpose(s) of the meeting, shall be sent to each unit owner by United States regular mail, unless waived in writing, at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting. Notice of special meetings shall be sent fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting. Hand delivery is acceptable where permissible by law. Any members' meeting or election at which one or more Directors are to be elected must be noticed as provided for in Section 2.4 next following. An officer of the Association or other person providing notice shall execute an affidavit of mailing per Chapter 718.112(2)(d)(2), Florida Statutes (2010), as amended from time to time, which shall be retained in the official records of the Association as proof of such mailing. A copy of the notice and agenda shall be posted at a conspicuous location, designated by Board resolution, on the Condominium Property.

Notice of specific meetings may be waived before or after the meeting and the attendance of any member (or person authorized to vote for such member) shall constitute such member's waiver of notice of such meeting, except when his (or his authorized representative's) attendance is for the sole and express purpose of objecting at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called.

2.4 Board of Directors Election Meetings – Notice and Procedure. The regular election of Directors shall occur as the first item of business at the annual meeting.

2.4.1 Not less than 60 days before a scheduled election, the Association shall mail or deliver, whether by separate Association mailing or included in another Association mailing or delivery including regularly published newsletters, to each unit owner entitled to vote, a first notice of the date of the election. Any person desiring to be a candidate for the Board of Directors shall give written notice to the Association not less than 40 days before scheduled election. Not less than 30 days before the election, the Association shall mail or deliver a second notice of the election to all unit owners entitled to vote therein, together with a written ballot which shall include an information sheet (if provided by the candidate), no larger than 8 ½ inches by 11 inches furnished by the candidate, to be included with the mailing of the ballot, with the costs of mailing and copying to be borne by the Association.

2.4.2 There is no quorum requirement necessary for an election. However, at least twenty percent (20%) of the Voting Interests of the Association must cast a ballot in order to have a valid election and elections shall be decided by a plurality of those votes cast.

2.4.3 In the event there are only as many (or fewer) candidates pre-qualified for election as there are open seats on the Board, no election shall be held and the pre-qualified candidate=s shall automatically become members of the Board after the annual meeting.

2.4.4 It is the intention of this Article 2.4 to “opt out” of the statutory election procedures found at Chapter 718.112(2)(d), Florida Statutes (2010). To this end, the Board may establish additional election rules as it deems appropriate to ensure a fair election process. Substantial compliance with these By-Laws relative to election procedures is sufficient.

2.5 Quorum/Voting. A quorum at members’ meetings shall consist of persons entitled to cast a majority of the Voting Interests of the Association (for a majority of the Voting Interests of the Condominium, as appropriate). Decisions made by a majority of the voting interests present and voting in person or by proxy, at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be binding and sufficient for all proposes except such decisions as may by Chapter 718 or the Condominium Documents require a larger percentage in which case the percentage required in F.S. 718 or the Condominium Documents.

2.6 Indivisible Vote. Each unit shall have one indivisible vote. If a unit is owned by a corporation, any offer may vote on behalf of said corporation. If a unit is owned by a partnership, any partner may vote on behalf of the partnership. If a unit is owned in trust, any grantor or beneficiary of a trust shall be entitled to vote. Any person asserting the right to vote on behalf of a said unit owned by an artificial entity shall be conclusively presumed to be entitled to vote on behalf of person entitled to vote. If a unit is owned by more than one person, any record owner can vote. If multiple owners or non-individual of a unit cannot agree on a vote, the vote shall not be counted as to the issue upon which disagreement exists.

2.7 Proxies. Votes may be cast in person or by proxy. Proxies shall be in writing, signed and dated, and shall be valid only for the particular meeting designated therein or an adjournment thereof, but in no event for more than 90 days, and must be filed with the Association before or at the voter registration immediately preceding the meeting, or adjournment thereof.

Except as specifically otherwise provided by law, unit owners may not vote by general proxy, but may vote by limited proxies substantially confirming to a limited proxy form adopted by the Division of Florida Land Sales, Condominiums and Mobile Homes. Limited proxies and general proxies may be used to establish a quorum. Limited proxies shall be used for votes regarding reserves; for votes taken to waive financial statement requirements; for votes taken to amend the Declaration; for votes taken to amend the Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws; and for any other matter which Chapter 718 requires or permits a vote of the unit owners. No proxy, limited or general, shall be used in the election of Board members. General proxies may be used for other matters for which limited proxies are not required and may also be used for other substantive changes to items for which a limited proxy is required and given. An executed telegram or cablegram appearing to have been transmitted by the proxy giver, or a photographic, photo static, facsimile, or equivalent reproduction of a proxy is a sufficient proxy. Owners may retroactively cure an alleged defect in a proxy by signing a statement ratifying the owner's intent to cast a proxy vote. The use of proxies is to be liberally construed,

2.8 No Quorum. If any meeting of members cannot be organized because a quorum is not present, or if insufficient voting interests are represented to approve a proposed item of Association business, the members who are present, either in person or by proxy, may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is present.

The unit owners in each of the four Punta Rassa Condominiums shall constitute a separate voting category and the membership of each category shall be entitled to vote upon matters having an effect solely upon its interests, as determined by the Declaration of Condominium. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Director shall be deemed to have vacated his position if such Director is more than ninety (90) days delinquent in the payment of any monetary obligation due to the Association, or, in addition to all other reasons pursuant to Florida law for removal of a Director, such director is charged by information or indictment with a felony theft or embezzlement offense involving the association's funds or property.
